

Michigan Week Celebration 2008

Friday, May 16th

Sturges-Young Auditorium

8:00 P.M. (Doors open @ 7:30)

“There’s No Place Like Home”

Join us for an evening filled with entertainment of music, dance, and stories throughout the history of Sturgis. Meet our founding fathers, their families, and let them tell you about some of the experiences up to present day. Did you know that in the 1920’s one of our banks was robbed by four men with shotguns and they took off with $20,000 in cash and $60,000 in bonds..that has not been found yet? Speaking of lost...

Where’s Dorothy?

This is a spectacular, unforgettable, original production that is guaranteed to be a crowd-pleaser! You won’t want to miss it!

Ticket Costs: $10, 12 and under Free

Kick-off Dinner 6 p.m. Tickets $15, Call the Chamber for more information.
